TOGETHER WE WILL WIN - TOGETHER WE WILL REPLACE PAIN WITH A SMILE

EVENTS FOR ISRAELI EVACUEES WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Since the early hours of October 7th, Israel's population has been facing an onslaught of attacks coming from the Gaza Strip. A few days later, attacks commenced on Israeli communities on the border with Lebanon. The current environment, marred by destruction and the harrowing sights and echoes of conflict, has rendered many areas uninhabitable, forcing thousands of Israelis to flee their homes.

In the face of such adversity, the vulnerability of evacuated children and young people with special needs have only intensified. Facing this challenging reality, Kerem Kayemeth LeIsrael – Jewish National Fund (KKL-JNF) and the Simcha LaYeled (Joy to the Child) organization have launched a critical project to aid young people with special needs who were evacuated from their homes in southern and northern Israel.

The project seeks to mobilize resources and extend a helping hand to these children and young people during these challenging times. The initiative includes a range of programs designed to provide essential support and care:

1. "The Race for Equality" Respite and Recreation Activities:

- Evacuated children and young people will partake in respite and recreation activities at 19 hotels nationwide.
- Themed "The Race for Equality," these events expose participants to the world of individuals with disabilities, highlighting their everyday challenges.
- These activities aim to showcase inner resilience and personal strengths, demonstrating how one can overcome obstacles and emerge victorious.

2. Hanukkah Events Across the Country:

- Five major Hanukkah events will be organized for the children throughout the country.
